

Mikael Strandberg has been a film maker and an explorer for 33 years and has done many TV-programs for SVT (Swedish Television), written 7 books, 100's of articles and produced 8 documentaries.

Documentaries in English: (Subtitled)

Patagonia – 3,000 kilometres by horse (1997)
The Maasai – 1,000 kilometres by foot (2001)
-58 degrees – exploring Siberia on skies and canoe (2006)
Expedition Yemen 52 degrees in the shade (2013)
Frozen Frontier (Director) 2015
Man With A Pram 2016
KARLAG (in postproduction)
Man With A Family – A Greenlandic Adventure

In production:

KARLAG, (ready 2022),
Like Father, Like son (ready 2021)

Awards

Winner of the Golden Goggles for Best Photography 2016 Yakutsk International Film Festival

Explorer Awards

Explorers Club in London awarded Mikael The Determination in the Face of Adversity Medal 2005.

The Travellers Club of Sweden awarded Mikael the Silver Medal in 2006.

Travellers Club in Finland awarded Mikael the Mannerheim Medal 2006.

Expeditions:

1986-1987 Bicycle from Chile to Alaska passing through The Darien Gap.

1989-1992 Bicycle from Norway to South Africa passing through the Sahara Desert.

1994 –1996 Bicycle from New Zealand to Cairo traversing Asia.

1997- 1998 Patagonia by horse through Chile and Argentina.

2000 A walk through Maasailand in Eastern Africa, Kenya and Tanzania, exploring the Maasai people.

2004 Exploring the Kolyma River in North-Eastern Siberia together with Johan Ivarsson.

2011 Expedition Yemen By Camel Traveled from Zabid to Sanaa just to show the world that Yemen is something totally different to what global media says.

2012 Expedition Yemen By Camel; Crossing The Sands of Al Mahra together with Tanya Holm.

2013 Expedition Frozen Frontier: Travelling through Siberia with reindeer and sleds.

2014 Man With A Pram together with Georgia Villalobos and Mikael's daughter Sardana from Moss Side, Manchester to Buckingham Palace, London.

2015 KARLAG (Kazakhstan)

2018 Greenland

